BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

"Christmas is not a time nor a season, but a state of mind. To cherish peace and goodwill, to be plenteous in mercy, is to have the real spirit of Christmas." – Calvin Coolidge, Former United States President

A storm survivor in last weekend's Kentucky tornadoes pulled up a chair to the Grand piano in the shambles of his home and began playing the beautiful religious song "There's Something About That Name." He explained to reporters that it wasn't planned, it just happened and gave him peace in all the mess, destruction and deaths that surrounded him.

"Birds are not real" was coined tongue-in-cheek by some guy who didn't have anything to do at the moment, but like so much of today's social media crap it has attracted a cult following and actual demonstrations against the government for fostering a myth of birds being real!! When you think you have heard it all, something like this becomes reality for some! Maybe they -- well gosh, we can't even find a lame excuse for their train of thought.

Sunday morning we were tempted to skip church and just read a book but pushed such thoughts away – thankfully. Christmas time singing services are fine but a traditional church service needs a sermon in our simple mind, especially when one is celebrating the birth of Christ. Anyway, the service this year was unique, and not all music. Also, a special treat for this writer was choir member Kenneth Baker singing "Sweet Little Jesus Boy." Don't know how many times we have heard him sing that song, but one more is nothing short of . . . another special treat.

More on Kenneth's solo . . . Having grown up on a South Alabama farm and having heard all the jokes about "country boys" we just smile and move on when hearing another one from folks who wouldn't know one end of a mule from the other. And yes, we have plowed a mule a few times up and down a field of peanuts. During our military years it was not unusual to being told, "you are not like 'all' those other southern farm boys." In other words, we didn't fit the mold of the jokes they had heard all their life. Those folks would probably also be shocked to know that the guy singing that hymn was born and raised as a "Southern Farm Boy" and has been a farmer his entire life. Also, he is one who can step off a piece of farm equipment that costs more money than some of those folks making the jokes will ever see – slap the dust off his pants, wash his face, put on a clean shirt and stand in a choir singing beautiful church music – and a solo just as it was written while his wife, Pam, plays the piano (or organ).

Several weeks ago an e-mail went out to the members of our immediate family asking advice on the main course for the noon meal Sunday following Christmas when plans are for all kit-and-kin to be together. Well the comments were varied as in any family with the diverse ideas fostered by our brood. The discussion calmed down drastically before anyone got feelings hurt when our response was a one word opinion . . . "FOOD". Therefore the main course will be whatever Michele decides will be most tasty, fitting for the season and easiest for her to cook!

We close this week's astounding comments with a Merry Christmas shout out to all, and we hope each of you have the best Christmas you could ever have imagined! Pamper the little children, shower the other family members and friends with big smiles and those long overdue compliments. The Christmas season is also another opportunity to thank God for giving us such a wonderful life. It is His Grace that is always there to heal the scars from those unavoidable pains of every day life.

Be safe, wear your mask, social distance, wash your hands AND get the shot(s) and/or booster!

Cuzin Lou Lou's Tales from Yonder

Editor's Note: Cuzin Lou Lou's tales are to be enjoyed as a light-hearted form of Southern expression

Last week, Papa gave Lou Lou and Sister quite a scare. Sister arrived home one afternoon after work and found Papa sitting in his recliner as normal, but he soon told her he had a problem and could not stand up from his chair. He tried once again to get up and almost fell.

Sister went into action... and she called Lou Lou for help! Lou Lou quickly came home from work and found Papa was indeed in a bit of trouble.

Lou Lou dialed the number of a close friend knowing her husband is a first responder. Luckily, he was home that evening, and the friend was on her way home from work too. When she told her husband there was an issue with Papa, he too jumped into action without question.

Shortly after the friend arrived at the Yonder gang's house, he determined that further evaluation was needed for Papa. So, he too placed a simple phone call to another friend at the the local EMS.

After the medics arrived, they determined that Papa was having an issue that needed medical attention. It was explained it could be something as simple as dehydration or as serious as a heart issue.

The medics loaded Papa into their ambulance and off to the hospital the Yonder gang went. Fortunately, Papa's issue was determined to only be dehydration, and he was loaded up on some fluids that night. Upon release from the emergency room, he walked out on his own!!

Fast forward to this week and Papa is getting hounded quite heavily from Sister and Lou Lou in making sure that he drinks, drinks, and drinks some more, especially good 'ole H2O and Gatorade! He gets a little irritated with them at times, but then he is reminded that his little scare now requires it from them.

Several times since the episode, Lou Lou has thought about how thankful she truly is to live in a place like Yonder where all it takes is a simple phone call and help comes running without question! The friends that came to Papa's rescue during this scare etched an even larger place in Lou Lou's heart last week!!

Until next time...God Bless, Keep Smiling and Merry Christmas from the Yonder gang!!

Elba BOE approves several hires before January

by Linda Hodge, Editor

The Elba City Schools Board of Education met Thursday evening, Dec. 16, for its monthly meeting, and the main reason for the meeting was to allow some employee hires to be made prior to the start of the second semester for the school year in January.

Upon recommendation of high school principal Wynn Grimes, superintendent Chris Moseley asked the board to approve the hire of Zach Spann for the high school's ISS aide position. The superintendent noted that Spann already had been a volunteer coach for Elba and was serving as the auto mechanics instructor at the school via a contract with LBW Community College.

Moseley said principal Grimes and LBW officials had worked out a plan to cover the auto mechanics program with instruction for the remainder of the school year at Elba. Also, he said Spann would still assist with the program at Elba High School when his time allowed.

The board approved the transfer of Amanda Zorn from her special education teaching position to that of math teacher for Elba High School. Moseley said she would be filling a vacant junior high math slot that had been covered the first part of the school year with other staff members, including assistant principal Jason Tucker and technology coordinator Colby Capps — both certified math teachers.

Moseley said the school most likely would contract [for the remainder of the school year] with some recently retired special education teachers to cover the Zorn's special education slot she would be leaving to take the math teacher position.

For the elementary school, the board approved the hire of Dennis James to be the new custodian.

Carmen Odom was hired to fill a catastrophic aide slot. Moseley said Odom had been a substitute aide with the school for several years, and she had done a good job for the school.

Also, during the board meeting, the superintendent introduced the school's new School Resource Officer. He said Dale England had been with the school system for approximately three weeks prior to last Thursday. He comes to Elba City Schools via a contract between the City of Elba and Coffee County Sheriff's Department.

Moseley took a moment to thank Elba High School teacher Martha Crawford for her many years of service to Elba City Schools. He said Crawford was retiring this month from teaching after 28 years with Elba

Elba BOE president DeAnn Grantham with a plaque she received from AASB for completing over 100 hours of training with the AASB School Board Member Academy.

High School.

"We appreciate everything Mrs. Crawford has done for our school system over the past 28 years," he said.

Moseley noted that Elba had dropped in the Alabama High School Athletic Association's [AHSAA] reclassifications for 2022-2024. Elba will compete in Class 1A for sports during that two-year span. Moseley said Elba will be in a nine-team region in Class 1A for football.

AHSAA bases its classification numbers from student counts for grades 9-11 each two years.

Moseley congratulated board president DeAnn Grantham on her completions of Alabama Association of School Boards [AASB] board member academy training. He said she had been presented a plaque from AASB, which would be displayed at the central office on campus, for completing over 100 hours of board member academy training with AASB.

The superintendent also congratulated senior-athlete Chrystyle Caldwell on making the AHSAA North-South All-Star game roster for the South team. He played Friday, Dec. 17, in that game in Mobile. Also, a few days prior, Caldwell signed a scholarship to play football at the college level with the University of South Alabama.

"We all are very proud of Chrystyle," Moseley said.

Looking ahead, the superintendent said teachers would return to school Monday, Jan. 3, from their Christmas holidays break. He said students would return to school on Wednesday, Jan. 5, from the break.

How to Plan for Seasonal Grief
If you've ever lost a loved one, you know grief can come in cycles. Certain events - your loved one's birthday; an anniversary; a favorite holiday; a certain time of the year - can be all it takes to unleash a huge wave of grief.

You can't always stop this wave from coming; if you know certain seasons are hard on you, though, you can prepare yourself to cope. One suggestion is to lean into your memories; rather than trying to suppress them, actively seek to honor and share them. For example, if your family is having a big holiday gathering, make your deceased loved one's favorite dish for everyone to share, and invite loved ones to voice favorite memories.

Be proactive in taking care of yourself, physically and emotionally. Take some time to get outside and walk each day. Sunlight and fresh air can be good mood boosters. And, be sure to eat and sleep properly. Express your feelings of intensified grief, even if it's just by writing them down in a journal.

More than anything, avoid isolating yourself. Seek out the close friends and loved ones in whom you can confide. Don't shy away from family gatherings, even if you know they will bring some sadness. Try to stay close to the people you love, and the people you know will support and encourage you.

Finally, consider creating some kind of a memory box or memento with which you can honor your lost loved one - remembering their life and legacy even in a busy time of the year.

Grief can be very cyclical, and some dates on the calendar may fill you with apprehension - but with these steps, you can meet that apprehension head-on.

Out of the Script

A little church was having the final rehearsal for the Christmas Pageant when distressing news came to the director. The little boy who was to play the part of Joseph was sick and would not be able to be in the pageant. The director said, "I guess we'll just have to write Joseph out of the script." Sometimes that is what we do. We focus entirely on the other "players" in the drama and fail to pay attention to Joseph. If God chose Mary with care, we may be certain that He took into consideration the man to be her husband. After all, he would be the man who would fill the role of father through the years of Jesus' childhood. If the character of Mary was the first consideration in God's choice, the character of Joseph must have been the close second. So we do well today to pay attention to Joseph. What a great example he provides for a Father's Day sermon! What a great role model! What a great example for family life and for the godly home! What a great example he is for anyone, Father or not.

All of us face situations where we need to show kindness, where we must trust even when we cannot understand. We all face situations where we must take the first step without knowing what the next step is going to be.

We know so little about this carpenter from Nazareth, but what we do know warms our hearts and encourages us to be better than we are. — R.C.S.

Troopers ready for holiday travel period Dec. 24-Jan. 1

Families are preparing and finalizing plans for Christmas gatherings and New Year's celebrations. Much like the Thanksgiving travel period, Troopers with the Alabama Law Enforcement Agency (ALEA) expect to see travel numbers return to pre-pandemic levels as more citizens prepare to visit friends and loved ones this year.

Unfortunately, congested roadways mixed with dangerous driving behaviors can lead to tragic motor vehicle crashes.

"Each year, our mission is to save lives by preventing deadly crashes, especially during popular travel periods," ALEA Secretary Hal Taylor said. Our Highway Patrol Division does an outstanding job of developing and executing holiday enforcement plans to deter dangerous driving behaviors for all major holidays."

This year's official holiday travel period will be from 12:01 a.m. Friday, Dec. 24, to midnight Saturday, Jan. 1, 2022. During the official travel period, ALEA Troopers will conduct a variety of enforcement activities, including driver license and equipment check points, to curb such deadly behaviors as driving under the influence, driving while distracted, not buckling up, speeding and following too closely.

In addition, the Agency is participating in the national Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over campaign, designed to curb alcohol and drug-impaired driving. Monitor weather and road conditions wherever you are traveling. For road conditions/closings in Alabama, visit www.alea.gov/weather-advisories.

Our grandson is really getting excited about Christmas and his eyes shine whenever he gets on his knees around the tree to count his presents. I still think he enjoys opening his presents as much as he does seeing what he gets, but that is just a part of being a child and even as he grows older that excitement spreads to all of us.

MERRY CHRISTMAS FROM THE MULARZ FAMILY!

For what it is worth....

 The Elba Tigers opened the basketball season with two big wins and were even ranked in the first high school poll of the season, but the wheels have come off the victory wagon in recent weeks as they have now lost five straight games and after taking a peek at the schedule can see no easy wins in sight. The Tigers play hard on defense and get more than their share of turnovers every time they take the court, but so far their shooting touch has not arrived and they simply can't score enough points to win. When that is added to a couple of key injuries the results are disappointing losses. Hopefully better days are ahead, but it won't be easy.

 The Elba Lady Tigers snapped a three-game losing streak with a pair of late-week wins and appear to be ready to break loose on offense. They poured in sixty points in a win over New Brockton despite missing dozens of three-pointers, and when their shots start dropping from behind the arc – look out! This year's version of the Lady Tigers may not be as talented or as deep as in years past, but they are fun to watch and will get more than their share of wins.

 A look around the area found things looking up for all the teams. In boys' action, New Brockton is improving nightly and could be a surprise team in its area, while Brantley is a little short-handed due to a football injury, but is still a team to beat in the 1A ranks, Zion Chapel is still piling up the wins and may be the best team around that no one knows about, and Kinston has improved in recent action and will no doubt make some noise pretty soon. Over with the girls, Brantley is beginning to settle in and pick up some impressive wins, while Kinston will only get better as the season rolls along, Zion Chapel is still playing hard every time it hits the court, and New Brockton has greatly improved and is beginning to look like a team that can win some games. Yep, it is going to be a fun season to be a fan.

 The Zion Chapel Rebels said 'good bye' to their 55-year old gym last week and did so in grand fashion with an overtime win over Houston Academy. While the win was great and gave the fans a reason to cheer, I am sure many former Zion Chapel players and students came out to bid the gym a fond farewell. The Rebel family cut the ribbon on a new modern facility early in the week and all athletic teams will be looking to make new history in the beautiful new gym. I can remember attending and officiating countless game in the old gym, and while the crowds did get a little rowdy at times, it was always an adventure and you knew it would be loud and that the Zion Chapel side of the gym would be full. One game that I specifically remember was an Elba-Zion Chapel game when Mance Daughtry was the coach at Elba in which the fans from both teams got really rowdy and during the game headed outside to settle their differences. The fans went out on the court as they hurried to get outside, and I remember Coach Daughtry stood up when he saw what was happening and then sat back down as the game was stopped due to the fans being on the court. After the game I asked Coach Daughtry what happened and he just laughed and replied 'one of them big ole boys from the Zion Chapel side' told me to sit back down, and so I did. Nothing happened after the fans got outside, but it was a memory that I will always remember. I can't wait for my first trip to the new gym as the Rebels write a new chapter in the history book.

 Obviously the biggest news across the state regarding high school sports was the bi-annual reclassification of its member schools by the Alabama High School Athletic Association. Fans from all across the state were tied to their computers and smart phones awaiting the news about their favorite schools, and as always there was plenty of news to go around!

In the Wiregrass area a total of six schools went down in classification, while three went up. The teams moving down included Elba, from 2A to 1A; Eufaula, from 6A to 5A; Ashford, from 4A to 3A; Wicksburg, from 3A to 2A; Goshen, from 3A to 2A; and, Houston County, from 2A to 1A. The trio of teams moving up included Slocomb, from 3A to 4A; Samson, from 1A to 2A; and, Barbour County, from 1A to 2A.

Elba will compete in a nine-team region for the next two years in football along with Brantley, Pleasant Home, McKenzie, Red Level, Georgiana, Florida, Houston County and Kinston. Many area fans will shake their heads and say the Tigers will have a 'cakewalk' in their return to Class 1A, but a look at the history book revealed the Tigers have lost four of their last six games to Brantley, have a 6-6 all-time record against Georgiana, have a 16-14-4 all-time record against Florida, and a 5-3 all-time record against Houston County. The teams in next year's region in football posted a 49-47 record this past season, which makes it easy to see that it won't be a 'cakewalk' for anybody.

The news last week was good news for Ashford, which had struggled to a 16-54 record the last seven years in 4A; Goshen, which posted a 1-18 record in it two years in 3A; and, Wicksburg, which despite posting a 13-9 record in 3A should be a power in the 2A ranks. The news was not so good for Slocomb, which had posted an 18-6 record and claimed two straight region titles in 3A; Samson, which had posted a 13-7 record and made two straight state playoff appearances in its two years in 1A; and, Barbour County, which despite posting eight straight winless seasons had hoped to head down.

Some notable teams that will make changes next season include 2A power Leroy and 2A basketball power Calhoun moving down to 1A; Wicksburg and Reeltown moving down to 2A; Mobile Christian, Ashford, and, Straughn, moving down to 3A; T.R. Miller, Montgomery Catholic and Montgomery Academy moving up to 4A, with Andalusia moving down; Eufaula and Valley moving down to 5A; Pike Road moving up to 6A; and, Opelika moving up to 7A to form a nine-team region.

A few other changes that created a lot of news in certain circles included Lanett, LaFayette, Horseshoe Bend and Reeltown joining Luverne, Highland Home, Goshen and Barbour County in a rugged 2A region; Fyffe moving back down to 2A, where it won four state titles in six years, after two years in 3A; Madison Academy moving down to 3A, where it won three state titles in six years many years back; and, his life as a 6A head coach only got even tougher for former Elba Tiger head coach Scott Rials as 7A power Theodore, 7A Murphy, and 5A power St. Paul's joined Coach Rials Tigers and his Baldwin County Tigers, along with Spanish Fort, Saraland, McGill-Toolen, Blount and Robertsdale in perhaps the toughest 6A region ever. Coach Rials led the Tigers to an 8-4 record and a second round state playoff appearance last season, but his new region rivals include three teams that posted ten wins last season, one eight-win team and one seven-win team, which doesn't even include Murphy or Blount.

 In closing... Elba's football schedule is taking shape for next season after the drop to 1A and it looks like the Tigers will kick off the season next fall with road games to New Brockton and Kinston. I had hoped Elba and Zion Chapel could find a date to keep the cross-county rivalry alive, but it looks like the second non-region opponent will be Providence Christian, apparently an opponent that is attractive to the coaches and staff. With eight region games there are really no weeks off, making the upcoming season one that will be both unique and challenging.

Elba losing streak reaches 5 games

It was a busy, but not successful week for the Elba Tigers on the basketball court as they saw their losing streak reach five games with losses to Geneva 50-44, Opp 46-32 and New Brockton 54-45.

Following are recaps of last week's action:
Geneva 50 Elba 44
The Elba Tigers opened the week's action on Monday night at home against the Geneva Panthers and dropped a hard fought 50-44 decision.

Elba could get nothing to drop in the opening quarter and trailed 12-2 after eight minutes of play. A 3-pointer by Byron Burks woke up the Elba offense in the second quarter. However, the Tigers still trailed 20-11 at the half. Chrystyle Caldwell and Burks scored five points, apiece, in the third quarter as the Tigers cut the Panthers lead to 35-32, and while the Tigers did grab the lead midway through the final stanza, Geneva connected on 6 of 8 free throws in the quarter to hold on and hand Elba the 50-44 defeat.

Byron Burks scored 12 points and Alvin Henderson added 8 to lead Elba, while Talon Johnson scored 15 points and Noah Johnson added 14 for the Panthers.

Geneva (50): McReynolds 2, Brannon 1, T. Johnson 15, N. Johnson 14, Griffin 7, Perry 1.

Elba (44): Coleman 3, Burks 12, Marek 4, Peterson 4, Caldwell 7, Henderson 8, Daniels 6.

Opp 46 Elba 32

The Elba Tigers fell behind early and never caught up in a 46-32 road loss to the Opp Bobcats.

The Tigers managed only two baskets in the first half as Opp raced out to a 22-7 halftime advantage, and while Alvin Henderson and Zaydrian Daniels combined for nine points in the third quarter to wake up the Tigers offense, the deficit was simply too much to overcome as Elba saw its losing streak reach four games.

Zaydrian Daniels score 12 points and Alvin Henderson added 9 to lead Elba, while AJ Coleman scored 13 and Terry Davis added 11 for the Bobcats.

Opp (46): J. Hill 3, Z. Hill 2, Coleman 13, Davis 11, Mount 9, Jennings 2, Stoudemire 6.

Elba (32): Burks 7, Marek 2, Peterson 2, Henderson 9, Daniels 12.

New Brockton 54 Elba 45

The Elba Tigers opened up an 11-point second quarter lead and were still on top by nine points in the third quarter, but couldn't hold off a determined New Brockton rally as they lost to the Gamecocks 54-45, at New Brockton.

New Brockton took advantage of early Elba turnovers and the shooting of Matt Smith to open up an early 8-4 lead, but the Tigers rallied late and when Jordan Marek hit a short jumper late in the stanza Elba managed to sneak ahead 10-9.

The Tigers came out on fire in the second quarter and sparked by Kindarius Hill and Byron Burks went on a 12-2 run to open up a 22-11 advantage. The Gamecocks rallied in the closing minutes of the half to pull within 22-17, and out the Elba lead to 22-19 early in the third quarter on a basket by Baylon Foster.

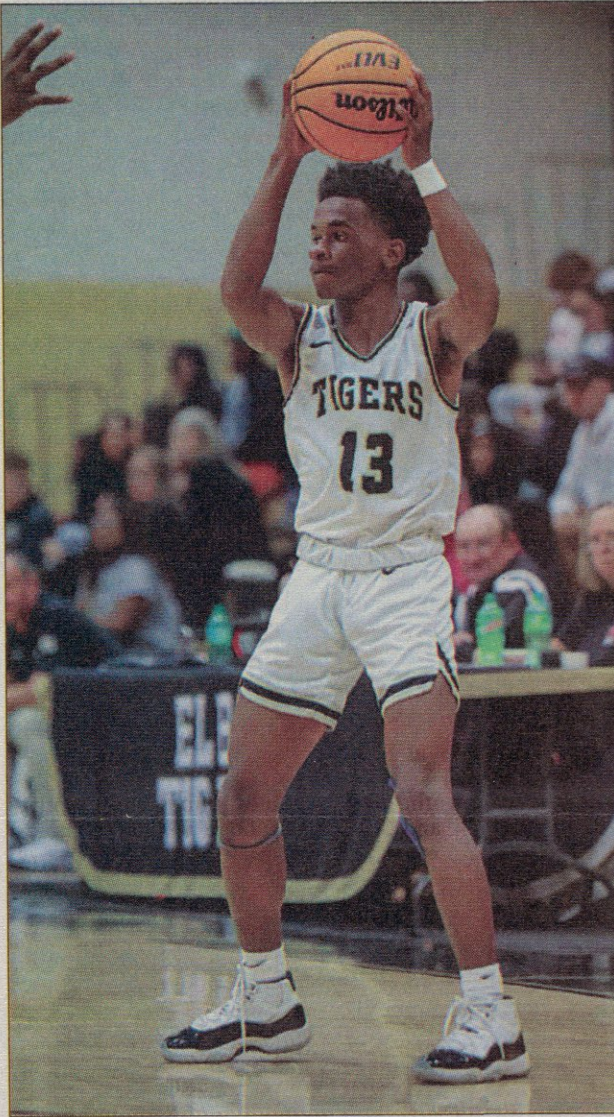

The Tigers stretched their lead to 28-19 with 5:51 left in the third quarter on a 3-pointer by Alvin Henderson, but the Gamecocks battled back and when Yassiah Rosseau drained a 3-pointer from the quarter in the closing seconds of the stanza New Brockton found itself on top 37-34.

Elba pulled even at 40-40 with 4:53 left on the clock on a driving layup by JT Coleman; however, the Gamecocks quickly regained the lead on a basket by Foster, and upped their lead to 45-40 with 3:36 left on a 3-pointer by Anthony Silar. A 3-pointer by Elba's Alvin Henderson with 1:36 remaining pulled the Tigers within 46-45, but New Brockton went 8 for 8 from the free throw line in the closing minute to pull away and seal the win.

Alvin Henderson scored 14 points and Kindarius Hill added 11 to lead Elba, while Matt Smith and Anthony Silar both scored 16 points for the Gamecocks.

N.B. (54): Brown 2, Foster 10, Smith 16, McNabb 7, Silar 16, Rosseau 43.

Elba (45): Hill 11, Coleman 4, Burks 6, Marek 6, Peterson 2, Henderson 14, Daniels 4.
